

WHY IS DATA IMPORTANT?

Data drives the implementation of child protection policies.

Data sheds light on the truth about the extent of child abuse, and gives us the who, what, and how to try to address it

Data helps us develop effective forms of intervention that we know will work

Data drives knowledge and funding.

